WHAT’S THE BIG IDEA?
by Kelly Leavitt

Last spring, Sarah Wilcox, executive director of the Mentone Educational Resources Foundation (MERF), was invited to apply for a competitive grant from the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama. The foundation was offering a $20,000 grant, in celebration of their 20th anniversary, to a non-profit organization with an innovative “Big Idea” for their community.

Shortly after Sarah learned of the grant, Anne McLeod and I attended the Creative Placemaking Leadership Summit in Columbia, SC, thanks to a scholarship from South Arts and the combined financial assistance of MERF, the Little River Arts Council, Moon Lake Library, the Mentone Area Preservation Association (MAPA), and the Mentone Arts and Cultural Center. When we returned, we hosted a meeting for anyone in the community who was interested in exploring how to implement some of the placemaking principles we had learned about. Sarah Wilcox attended, and the group decided to develop an idea called “Pathway to Community” as MERF’s entry to the Big Idea competition, in cooperation with the Little River Arts Council.

A series of brain-storming meetings led to the development of this exciting project. Many, many dedicated community members participated (I fear that if I start listing names, someone will be mistakenly omitted). One twist on the application was that this was not to be a traditional, written grant, but rather it would be submitted in the form of a video, no longer than five minutes in length. Although we knew we were not videographers, we also knew we were a group with big ideas, and we approached the grant application with gusto.

To our great surprise, we won the first-place award. In fact, MERF’s Big Idea video won top scores from the entire panel of judges, among a field of 20 other deserving projects. We believe this is because our application was so community-and partnership-oriented, with cameo appearances on the video from the leaders of our town and its organizations. We are all very grateful to the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama for this extraordinary opportunity.

Merrityme Artisan Market to Benefit Moon Lake School
by Rhea Pirch

The Little River Arts Council will again partner with Moon Lake Baptist Church to host the Merrityme Artisan Market in the Arlene Fowler Youth Center next to the church at 4671 AL Hwy. 117 in Mentone on Friday, December 13, and Saturday, December 14, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. All vendor fees from this event benefit the students at Moon Lake Elementary School.

The Merrityme Artisan Market will feature more than 20 local artisans with a variety of wares, including handmade jewelry, soaps, candles, ornaments, metalworks and other crafts, photography, massages, paintings, baked goods, candy, and much more. It serves as a perfect holiday season opportunity for

Mentone Matters • by Mayor Rob Hammond

We have much to be thankful for in Mentone. Our community thrives because so many people give of their time and resources to make Mentone a great place to live. A generous spirit prevails, not only during the holidays, but all year long. The council and I wish you a Merry Christmas and best wishes for a healthy New Year!

Letter from the Editor

Well, the year is wrapping up, and so is the decade. The second decade, in fact, since the turn of the millenium (which, honestly, feels like yesterday). Much has changed and much has stayed the same, in Mentone and the world beyond.

In my own family, this will be the first Christmas I have a grandchild, and I cannot wait. Next year might be more fun, with his burgeoning understanding of Santa Claus. But this year might be more magical, as he takes in the lights, the sounds, the smells, the colors, and the love and the laughter of family and friends.

We’ll have plenty of opportunities to enjoy the Christmas season in Mentone, starting with the second annual Christmas Tree Lighting on December 6—a lovely event created by Cynthia Stinson of the Mentone Inn. Our seniors will enjoy a special Christmas lunch on December 4, and our children at Moon Lake School will present a musical Christmas program on December 12. Moon Lake Community Library will host an Open House on Sunday, December 15, for a time of community socializing. Jimmy Rogers will open the doors of the Green Leaf Grill on Christmas Day for anyone wishing to enjoy a potluck lunch with others who may be far from family or friends.

It’s a time for making memories, as Betsy Dillbeck so poignantly expresses in her story on page 16. As we approach winter solstice on December 21, with these dark nights that can be so conducive to introspection, I do hope we are lucky enough to experience at least one good snow!

Opportunities also are occurring as we gear up for the new year. There will be a community-wide planning meeting for MERF’s Pathways to Community project on December 12 at the library. A First Day hike will be led from Little River Falls to Martha’s Falls in Little River Canyon National Preserve on New Year’s Day. The library will host a Seed Swap on January 25, and a Circle of Service on January 26.

I join the board of MAPA in wishing for you, your family, and friends a meaningful and peaceful holiday season and a very happy new year. —Kelly

I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving, and can now look forward to the Christmas holidays coming in the near future. It’s a great time (and excuse) for getting the family together to watch all of our favorite Christmas movies. My family knows pretty much every line from “Christmas Vacation.” It’s almost a contest to see who gets them exactly right. The best part of the whole experience is everyone getting to share a ton of laughs. Beats fussing and bickering any day.

There is no significant MAPA news to share this month, so I’ll part with a simple wish that everyone has a fabulous holiday season, and that you are fortunate enough for your family’s version of Cousin Eddie (and Snots) not to unexpectedly show up at your door.

Peace to all.

Mark Hoffman is the president of Mentone Area Preservation Association.

Merry Christmas

Merrityme Market (continued from page 3) artists to show and sell their work to shoppers who can find unique gifts in a festive, Christmas-filled atmosphere. On Saturday, from 10–12 a.m., musician Matt Downer, known as the “Old Time Traveler,” will add to the ambiance by playing a selection of early American holiday music on fiddle, banjo, and guitar, and Santa will be on hand from 12–2 p.m. each day to listen to children’s Christmas wishes. A gift-wrapping station will be available to get newly acquired Christmas gifts wrapped.

We look forward to seeing you at this community event that helps support local artists and Mentone’s Moon Lake Elementary School students.

Medicare Advantage Supplemental Benefits by Lynn Hixon

A supplemental benefit is an item or service covered by a Medicare Advantage Plan that is not covered by Original Medicare. These items or services do not need to be provided by Medicare providers or at Medicare-certified facilities. To receive them, you just need to follow your plan’s rules. Some commonly offered supplemental benefits are dental care, vision care, hearing aids, and gym memberships. Supplemental benefits must be primarily health-related, with some exceptions for people with chronic conditions. Some supplemental benefits are offered to everyone who is enrolled in a plan, but for an additional premium, such as to add dental coverage. Other benefits may be covered for everyone enrolled in the plan, regardless of whether you use the benefit, such as a gym membership. Medicare Advantage supplemental benefits are not to be confused with Medicare supplemental insurance, also known as a Medigap policy. Medigaps are health insurance policies that pay for some Original Medicare out-of-pocket costs.

Beginning in 2020, Medicare Advantage Plans can begin covering supplemental benefits that are not primarily health-related for beneficiaries who have chronic illnesses. These benefits should address environmental factors that may affect the health, functioning, quality of life, and risk levels of beneficiaries with chronic conditions. Some examples of the new benefits are meal delivery, transportation for non-medical needs, and home air cleaners. In order to be eligible for this new category of supplemental benefits, you must be considered chronically ill. This means that you:

- Have at least one medically complex chronic condition that is life-threatening or significantly limits your health or function.
- Have a high risk of hospitalization or other negative health outcomes.
- Require intensive care coordination.

For more information please call the DeKalb County Council on Aging and speak to your SHIP representative, Lynn Hixon, at 256-845-8590.

10 Commandments of How to Get Along with People by Ann Landers • Submitted by Harvey Hogue

1. Keep skid chains on your tongue; always say less than you think. Cultivate a low, persuasive voice. How you say it counts more than what you say.
2. Make promises sparingly, and keep them faithfully, no matter what it costs.
3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging word to or about somebody. Praise good work, regardless of who did it. If criticism is needed, criticize helpfully, never spitefully.
4. Be interested in others, their pursuits, their work, their homes and families. Make merry with those who rejoice; with those who weep, mourn. Let everyone you meet, however humble, feel that you regard him as a person of importance.
5. Be cheerful. Don’t burden or depress those around you by dwelling on your minor aches and pains and small disappointments. Remember, everyone is carrying some kind of a load.
6. Keep an open mind. Discuss but don’t argue. It is a mark of a superior mind to be able to disagree without being disagreeable.
7. Let your virtues, if you have any, speak for themselves. Refuse to talk of another’s vices. Discourage gossip. It is a waste of valuable time and can be extremely destructive.
8. Be careful of another’s feelings. Wit and humor at the other person’s expense are rarely worth it and may hurt when least expected.
9. Pay no attention to ill-natured remarks about you. Remember, the person who carried the message may not be the most accurate reporter in the world. Simply live so that nobody will believe them. Disordered nerves and bad digestion are a common cause of backbiting.
10. Don’t be too anxious about the credit due you. Do your best, and be patient. Forget about yourself, and let others “remember.” Success is much sweeter that way.

1983 Holiday Festival will illuminate Mentone. The holiday celebration, called “A Winter Wunderful Christmas,” will be coordinated by local merchants, residents and MAPA. The theme will reflect Mentone of the 1920s. MAPA’s membership now stands at 85. With 100 members within reach, MAPA will give the 100th member a free membership and their picture will appear in The Groundhog.

1985 Congratulations to the Moon Lake School and lunchroom staff. Its November rating by DeKalb County Health Dept was 98—the highest in the county.

1986 At December’s town meeting, Mayor Rob Hammond announced that the drought is officially over. The storage tanks are full and water is plentiful at this time of year.

1993 The newly formed Cloudland Volunteer Rescue Squad held their first annual Turkey–Ham shoot. A total of $1,900 was raised to help fund the Squad.

1998 The Rhododendron Garden Club establishes a library with the presentation of its first book, “Wildflowers of Alabama and Adjourning States” by Blanche Dean, Amy Mason and Joab Thomas. The Club looks forward to adding to its library with additional books.

2001 Mentone City Council posted a “Noise Ordinance” to deal with the ever-increasing loud boom boxes, which many of the towns citizens have complained about recently.

2003 The Lookout Fire Protection District in Mentone received a $83,000 federal grant to be used for the purchase of a new firefighting vehicle.

Valley Head School Receives Technology Grant by Tara Kirby

Valley Head School (VHS) strives for all students in grades K-12 to be performing on grade-level. This includes meeting standards in reading, math, and science. We hope to provide our students with the most up-to-date technology. Technology changes how students learn. Although we will never keep up with the ever-changing technology, we want to offer the best possible resources for our students. Our current goal is to encourage achievement and engagement and to develop 21st Century learners.

Because of the generous support from the Tillotson-Menlo Foundation, Valley Head School has increased the technology in every grade during the past nine years. I started writing the grant applications in 2010 and we have received a total of $65,000. Every student has benefited. Although I transferred to another school in the county, I have a fifth-grade student at Valley Head School and my husband is the principal. I taught for 18 years at VHS and I still feel a strong connection to both the community and school. I can now continue my support as a parent. VHS has many bright students that I know will reach their full potential if given the appropriate tools.

My Unforgettable Character by Addison Prestood

My dad is my unforgettable character. He always helps people out when they need it. He also makes sure that when you need basketball shoes, he can always be counted on. His favorite food is steak. He also has a fast car and he is even growing a beard. He works a lot, but he does come to my basketball practice.

One day I was working with my dad under a car and he started showing me parts under his car, then showed me how to put them on. Now I know a lot about a car. He once let me change a wheel and tire on his car. He also shows me tricks in basketball and how to do a layup or how to shoot a basketball correctly. One day he shot a half court and made it!

Addison Prestood is a 6th-grade student who lives in Mentone. He wrote this story for a class assignment at Moon Lake Elementary School.
The Rhododendron Garden Club met at the MERF House on November 12 at 10 a.m. Nine members were present, along with two guests. Mellanie Tuttle supplied refreshments for the group. For the meditation, Sue Schwarz shared the poem “Autumn Leaves” by Edel T. Copeland. It focused on the beauty of the changing seasons, and “Mother Nature’s way of letting go.”

The flag was pledged and the business portion of the meeting commenced. The minutes and the treasurer’s report were presented and accepted. During roll call, members were asked to name an herb we can bring inside to overwinter. Rosemary, sage, German and lemon thyme, parsley and oregano were all mentioned. We were also asked to name our favorite gardening books. These included “The Well-tended Perennial Garden,” “Pass-along Plants,” Tough Plants for Southern Gardens,” “Compost Gardening,” Southern Living Gardening Book,” and “The Giant Book of Garden Solutions.”

Horticulture chair Martha Wood gave us a tip on how to stunt the growth of the paperwhite narcissus, a popular bulb for winter forcing that frequently grows tall so quickly that they flop over before the plant has finished flowering. Plant the bulb as usual, she instructed, in a combination of stones (gravel, marbles, or glass beads) and water, as usual. Wait until the roots start growing and the shoot is about 1–2 inches tall. Pour off the water and replace it with a solution containing 4 to 6% alcohol. (Any higher percent may be toxic.) Just about any hard liquor can be used for the solution; vodka, gin, whiskey, rum or tequila. Be careful not to confuse “proof” with the percent of alcohol in each of the liquors. An 80% proof bottle of vodka actually contains 40% alcohol. To convert this to 5% alcohol, divide the 40 by 5 to get 8. Subtract one part to give you 7. Therefore, for this 80% proof vodka, use one part of it to seven parts of water. If you don’t have hard liquor, rubbing alcohol can be used, but be aware that it contains 70% alcohol, so needs to be diluted at the rate of 1 part rubbing alcohol to 10 or 11 parts water. Use the alcohol solution instead of water for further irrigation of the paperwhites, and they will start to show the results (shorter stems with just as many big blooms) in just a few days.

The meeting continued with discussion of old and new business. We decided to start a Facebook page in order to draw some attention to the club and to give us the opportunity to share tips and inform the public of gardening events going on in the Mentone area (please “Like” it!). The business portion then wrapped up, and Martha Wood presented her program on salvia.

Salvia, also known as sage, is part of the mint family. All varieties have a square stem with opposite leaves. Its corolla is a colorful tube that can be different shapes but must have two lips of unequal length, two fertile stamen, and produce four seeds. The attributes of this perennial garden flower are numerous. They reproduce readily from seeds and stem cuttings. They have few disease problems and grow well in sun and shade, as long as they have well-draining soil. They display fragrant, handsome leaves. Many produce flowers sporadically up the stem instead of opening at the lowest or uppermost position and progressing the other direction. Species (there are over 900 of them) can grow from two to six feet tall, adding accents to all parts of a garden bed, and provide an array of colors from spring to fall; yellow, pink, purple, coral, white, blue and red. Bees and hummingbirds love their tubular flowers. They can be used in culinary dishes and have healing properties, but their aroma is offensive to deer, so they’ll be left alone in the garden.

Martha brought in different types of salvia (salvia elegans, or pineapple sage, and salvia cocinea, or Lady in Red) for us to examine. She also shared a PowerPoint presentation with pictures and facts about the wide assortment of salvia, which included salvia patens (gentian sage), the variety that brags the deepest and purest blue flowers in the world of plants. Salvia splendens comes in many colors, with large flower stalks above dark green, heart-shaped leaves. Salvia argentea, or silver sage, is a foliage salvia, noted for its silvery, fuzzy leaves arranged in a rosette. Salvia greggi, also known as Texas or autumn sage, is a mounding shrub that can survive on little water and high heat. Its blossoms are most commonly red, but also come in shades of pink, purple, white and orange. For cooking, the culinary sage salvia officinalis purpurascens is most widely used for its distinct flavor.

For future reference on salvias, Martha suggested A Book of Salvias: Sages for Every Garden by Betsy Clebsch.

The meeting wrapped up with a reminder of the yearly luncheon on December 11 at the home of member Mary Shurett. Past members are invited to join us, along with any visitors who would like to indulge in a tasty selection of food and good company. Please contact Mellanie Tuttle at 256-634-4403 or send us an email at RhododendronGardenClub@gmail.com if you’re interested, and we’ll save you a place at the table! We’ll be swearing in a slate of new officers and reviewing the past year of events. Our next meeting will be held at the MERF House on Tuesday, January 14, at 10 a.m. The Rhododendron Garden Club wishes you all a safe and happy holiday season!

Rhea Pirch serves as secretary for the Rhododendron Garden Club, which is a member of National Garden Clubs, Inc., Deep South Region, The Garden Club of Alabama—District II and the Northeast Federation of Garden Clubs. existing concrete block building behind the MERF House with the help of community members. The mural represents macro images of native flowers.

- Additional seating, including new Adirondack chairs and a “friendship” bench, will be installed.
- A large abacus featuring ceramic beads made by the children of the community will serve as a way to keep track of laps around the ¼-mile track.
- Native flowers and other vegetation will be planted along the trail.

The pathway is designed to interest and inspire people of all ages, with the hope of building a happier and healthier community. You can see the video, which was professionally edited by Robert Moehr and narrated by Paul Peppers, on MERF’s YouTube channel (a shortcut link is bit.ly/MERFpathway).

How can you be involved?

There’s work to be done and, as always, the more hands helping, the lighter the load! The next step in this project will be a meeting led by Sarah Wilcox on Thursday, December 12, at 5:30 p.m. at Moon Lake Community Library. Everyone is encouraged to attend. We will develop a timeline and participants can signify their various interests, talents, and skills. We’ll especially need the help of those who can dig holes, pour concrete, and secure the musical instruments and fencing. We’ll also need helpers when it’s time to paint the pickets (300+) and the mural. We know this is a lot of work, but we’re counting on volunteers to complete this project all the way to fruition. It will be fun, and it will be rewarding— not just for those who help create it, but for generations to come. We have a new Facebook group (MERF’s Pathway to Community), where we will post updates throughout the project.

Personally, I’ve been gratified to see how the core principles of creative placemaking really do work. We have tied together the improvement and enhancement of an existing community resource with art, music, nature, health, and personal connection. And we have a winner!

Potluck Christmas Dinner at the Green Leaf Grill

Christmas can be depressing for many people who are alone. It’s especially difficult when we miss our family and friends who are no longer with us. Jimmy Rogers, owner of Green Leaf Grill, recognizes this and, for the fourth year, he will be opening his Mentone restaurant for a community potluck to be served between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Christmas Day for a time of good fellowship and comfort.

“Bring a dish if you can,” says Jimmy. “If you can’t bring a dish, join us anyway! There will be plenty for all to eat.” If anyone needs transportation, Jimmy invites you to call 256-634-2110. “We will pick you up and take you back home.”

Hike to Martha’s Falls in Little River Canyon National Preserve
by Niki Wayner

Start the New Year with a first day hike at Little River Canyon National Preserve. Join Little River Canyon Preserve (National Park Service), DeSoto State Park, and JSU Field Schools staff on a beautiful outdoor adventure/hike from the Little River Canyon Center to Little River Falls and on to Martha’s Falls. This hike is a moderately difficult 4-mile hike. Meet at JSU’s Little River Canyon Center in Fort Payne at 9 a.m. for a pre-hike orientation.
First Day Hikes are staff-led hikes, held annually on New Year’s Day throughout the country, that are designed to encourage visitors to enjoy parks year-round and to promote good health and exercise by working off those calories gained during the holidays. Start the New Year off right!
Bring plenty of water and/or sports drink, snacks/lunch, hiking poles/staff (optional), sturdy shoes (open toe shoes are not recommended). Please be sure to dress appropriately according to seasonal temperatures/weather. As with all outdoor events, if it’s raining/stormy or very poor trail conditions, we may have to cancel. If the weather is questionable, please call the park before you leave home to check if the hike is on time (256-845-0051). Hike conditions will be posted the day before the hike on DeSoto’s Facebook page.

MERF News by Sarah Wilcox

My boards may be a little creaky and my paint a little flaky but I am full of life. I continue to open my doors to the young and the wise so my walls are full of joy, laughter and learning.

MERF's heart is overflowing with thankfulness. Thank you to everyone who believes in the work of MERF and supports it with their time, their talents, and their resources. Thanks to ideas and work from many in the community, MERF won 1st place in the “Big Idea” grant from the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama. The community will receive $20,000 to enhance the MERF walking track. Enjoy the video on MERF’s YouTube channel named “Pathway to Community.” Thanks to Crista Sims’ second grade class at Moon Lake Elementary school for honoring MERF as their Helping Hand Hero with a liberty pin! Thanks to MERF moms and toddlers for beautiful artwork and “shaking off the sillies” during your monthly art/music class with Ms. Paula. Thank you to all volunteers who help MERF programs happen, such as senior lunch and afterschool tutoring.

December Delights and Deadlines for MERF:
Wednesday, December 4 — Sue McLaurin Henry Memorial Scholarships are due!
Wednesday, December 4 — Senior lunch Christmas party at the MERF house. Join us at 11:15 a.m. for fabulous food, singing, and surprise visitors—ho ho ho!
Thursday, December 12 — Planning meeting for “Pathway to Community” grant project to enhance MERF’s walking track. Everyone is welcome to come to Moon Lake Library at 5:30 p.m., as the entire community is needed to make this project fulfill the vision.
Friday and Saturday, December 13 and 14 — Come by MERF’s booth at Little River Arts Council’s Merrityme Artisan Market from 10 a.m.–4 p.m. Great gifts that give twice will be available, including new Christmas cards and ornaments designed by Moon Lake Elementary School students.
Tuesday, December 17 — Moon Lake Elementary School Christmas program in the gym.

January Jaunts for MERF will not be in hibernation but will be planning, organizing and designing a fabulous walking track and MERF’s 8th annual “Taste of the Mountain and Art Auction” happening on Saturday, April 4. Volunteers are needed to make both of these events happen, so please join us and let Sarah know by email or text that you are interested in helping. MERF loves being able to provide wonderful experiences such as the scholarships, field trips, tutoring, and senior lunches. Thank you to all who help to enrich the learning and living in our community. MERF could not do what it does without each of you! Here’s to a fabulous New Year and an engaging and vibrant “Pathway to Community”!

Sarah Wilcox is Executive Director of MERF, a local non-profit organization whose mission is “to enrich the learning and living of the community by identifying needs and coordinating resources.” If you would like to support our programs, tax-deductible donations can be mailed to P.O. Box 107, Mentone, AL 35984, or you may contribute online at merfhouse.org. Contact Sarah at merf.mentone@gmail.com or 256-635-8193 for more information.
Moon Lake Community Library News

We very much appreciate your ongoing support of Moon Lake Community Library, one of our area’s most valuable resources. Please join us at our annual Holiday Open House on Sunday, December 15, from 3 until 5 p.m. Bring your holiday cheer and community spirit, and spend time socializing with your neighbors. We want to thank you for your support throughout the year and give newcomers a chance to get to know the library. Refreshments will be served. Area businesses have generously donated a variety of wonderful door prizes, and author Ann Rutland will read from her delightful children’s book, The Happy Life of Christopher Tree.

On Monday, January 13, at 6:30 p.m., Moon Lake Community Library will host Jim Baggett, who will present a multi-media program on the 1918 Influenza. Jim Baggett is Head of the Department of Archives and Manuscripts at the Birmingham Public Library and Archivist for the City of Birmingham. He has served as president of the Society of Alabama Archivists, Chair of the Jefferson County Historical Commission, and as a trustee for several historical associations. Jim has lectured throughout the U.S. and in Europe and has been featured on Alabama Public Television, Alabama Public Radio, National Public Radio, and C-SPAN. He has authored two books on Alabama history, edited three others, and has written more than fifty articles. Jim lives with his wife and daughter in Birmingham and Mentone.

He will also share with us a Mentone connection to the 1918 Influenza. Jim Baggett is Head of the Department of Archives and Manuscripts at the Birmingham Public Library and Archivist for the City of Birmingham. He has served as president of the Society of Alabama Archivists, Chair of the Jefferson County Historical Commission, and as a trustee for several historical associations. He has authored two books on Alabama history, edited three others, and has written more than fifty articles. Jim lives with his wife and daughter in Birmingham and Mentone.

The Christmas village, which Mentone resident Mickey Luck constructed for the library many years ago, is currently on display. Children, especially, are enchanted by the scene, which features the Yuletide train as it passes through the village. We’re looking forward to another vibrant year in 2020 and invite you to be a “Friend of Moon Lake Library.” Friends are vital to the ongoing success of our community library. Your financial donation directly supports our ability to meet our expenses of book and DVD purchases, utility bills, wireless internet, librarian’s salary, catalog software, furnishings, and supplies. Our book sales alone do not meet our expenses, so our budget is very limited. The future of Mentone’s community library depends on the financial support of the community in order to survive...and thrive.

This year, we are offering “perks” to our Friends. Those who donate $100 or more will be offered one of our new tote bags and your choice of five free books from our sale shelves. Those who donate between $25 and $99 may purchase a discounted tote bag ($5) and select two free books from our sale shelves. Every donation makes a difference, and we want you to feel appreciated.

Kelly Leavitt is the community librarian.

Community Game Nights
Fridays 12/13, 1/10 & 1/24 @ 6 pm

Enjoy playing a variety of games with your neighbors and friends (old and new) at Moon Lake Community Library. Bring your favorite game or come learn how to play a new one. Bring a finger food to share in the pot luck. Coffee, tea, and water will be provided. All ages are welcome.

“It Came Like a Cyclone”: Alabama & the 1918 Influenza
Monday 1/13 @ 6:30 pm

As World War One came to a close, tens of millions of people around the world contracted influenza in the worst pandemic in human history. Alabama was not spared the misery, and almost 150,000 Alabamians became ill in every part of the state. Thousands, including whole families, died. Stores, theaters, fairs, schools, and even churches were closed to try and stop the spread of the disease. With not enough doctors or hospital beds to tend the sick, neighbors pulled together to care for one another. This talk explores the story of the great influenza in Alabama and around the world.

On Monday, January 13, at 6:30 p.m., Moon Lake Community Library will host Jim Baggett, who will present this multi-media program on the pandemic.

The musicians play both in unison and harmony, with others sit and listen or browse for books. Light refreshments will be served.

The Lookout Mountain Strummers, a musical group started by Mickey Luck, is primarily a mountain dulcimer group, but all instruments are welcome. Some of the instruments played include fiddle, guitar, mountain dulcimer (standard, baritone, and bass), bowed psaltery, and even a hammered dulcimer on occasion. The musicians play both in unison and harmony, with strumming and fingerpicking.

The group will perform at Moon Lake Community Library on Saturday, December 14, at 11 a.m. This is a relaxed time for the musicians to enjoy playing together, while others sit and listen or browse for books. Light refreshments will be served.

Musicians are welcome to join the group, which meets at St. Joseph’s Episcopal Church on alternate Thursdays. For more information, call Liz Baker at 256-634-0402.

Seed Swap

Seed swapping is a tradition as old as time. Come by the library on Saturday, January 25, between 10 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. with any seed you’d like to share with others, either by swapping or giving. This is a great way to diversify your seed supply. Local gardeners will be on hand to offer gardening tips, discuss native plants, and organic gardening.

The Kite Runner, by Khaled Hosseini (2003) transports readers to Afghanistan at a tense and crucial moment of change and destruction. A powerful story of friendship, it is also about the power of reading, the price of betrayal, and the possibility of redemption; and an exploration of the power of fathers over sons—their love, their sacrifices, their lies.

Everyone is free to join in the discussion.

Happy Day!
FACELIFT IS ALMOST DONE! Work is nearing completion on the exterior painting, roofing & general upgrading of the exterior of Mentone’s iconic gas station and eatery, Helena’s Gas & Deli. This is a thriving restaurant, bar & grill, store, and gas station business. So, why would Helena want to sell? Well, she says she’s ready to retire and be with her grandbabies. (And she’s selling it “lock, stock and barrel.”) Locals and visitors to Mentone alike know this is the place to go for delicious food, reasonable gasoline prices & cold beverages. Lots of paved parking & add’l wooded land behind the existing building for future growth. $350,000 (1198281)

TURN THE TENSION METER DOWN & shift the clocks to slow speed, because this custom home, with a view of a small lake, is the place for you to RELAX. Originally built as a full-time residence, it has become a top earner in rental program. Sold furnished. 4BR/3.5BA, custom cabinetry; granite counter tops; SS appliances; stone FPLCE w/ gas logs; open floor plan; exposed beams & wide-plank floors. Just off DeSoto Pkwy; easy ac- cess to Mentone’s Brow Park, dining & shops. Built by local stone/block artisan Lee Crow, this place is virtually unchanged from its beginnings in 1962. Beautiful, wood-burning, mtn stone fireplace is central to LR/DR/KIT areas. Vaulted wood ceilings. Yes, it needs some updating & TLC, but this is a sweet opportunity. $189,900 (1119202)

DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH ON NORTH COOL ST. This single-level cottage is plain on the outside, delightful on the inside! Great location, too. Just a couple blocks from Mentone’s Brow Park, dining & shops. Built by loc- al stone/block artisan Lee Crow, this place is virtually unchanged from its beginnings in 1962. Beautiful, wood-burning, mtn stone fireplace is central to LR/DR/KIT areas. Vaulted wood ceilings. Yes, it needs some updating & TLC, but this is a sweet opportunity. $189,900 (1119202)

COOL, GREEN & SHADY. 4.1 acres of un-restricted beauty is just about the perfect size for your dream, large or small. Located on a quiet cherd road, perfect for taking afternoon walks, just 7 miles from downtown Mentone. Survey & topo map available. Wet-weather stream. $41,000 (1120916)

NEED A BIT OF EARTH? Well, here it is! Less than 5 minutes from downtown Mentone. Public water & power avail. A single acre, un-restricted, has been very hard to find in this area until now. $19,000. (1109345)

10.8 ACRES ON THE NORTH BROW. There’s just something about having the possibility of that wide-open vista of the valley below you, the mountain ridges in the distance beyond. Land is located just about 4.5 miles north of down- town Mentone off a paved county road. Build your brow-front dream now, or just clear a spot to set up your sunset gathering spot till you’re ready to build. It’s all good. $137,500 (1128107)

SOUTH COOL STREET BROW-FRONT property w/stone fireplace, chimney, part of subdivision, plus small garage. Newly surveyed. An original Mentone summer home once stood here, been in the same family since early 20s. Ap-prox 0.45-acre lot in this area where prop- erties are seldom available. Build your memories! $118,000 (1070474)

UNIQUE YEAR-ROUND NAVIGA-BLE RIVER LOT AT DESOTO FALLS Lake area. Approx 94’ front-age on both sides of W Fork Little River, the truly navigable part where you can canoe, kayak or pontoon all the way to Mentone! Survey & perc in file. So much natural beau- ty! $155,000 (355152)

Christmas is Memory... Past & Present

by Betsy Dillbeck

Here we go again, another Christmas season. I, for one, am marching purposefully into the holidays, at my age, just grateful for another chance to be with family and friends to enjoy this special time.

As we gather, over the past few years, I marvel at the new memories and traditions being blended into my sons’ families, many different from the ones I grew up with, but recognizing some that my sons have taken from their childhood Christmases.

Since moving to Fort Payne four years ago, I usually spend Thanksgiving with my son in San Clemente, California, where Christmas begins on Thanksgiving Day afternoon, as the artificial tree is put together and decorated, and the various seasonal decorations (the Nutcracker cast!) adorn the home. I then spend Christmas with my other son, at their home on Lookout Mountain, where a live tree is not allowed, but the same sequence of events holds true on the afternoon. They decorate their tree and home for the season. In both families, each child has his and her special ornaments that they place on the tree. It always brings back so many memories on Christmases past in my life.

Many of those involve the Christmas tree. My Uncle George and Aunt Meta, on my mother’s side, lived in Greenfield, New Hampshire, on Slip Road, at the edge of a tract of meadows and woods. It was about a 45-minute drive from our home in Ashby, Massachusetts, just over the state line. I was probably 8 years old, the first time I went on the tree gathering. It was cold and snow was on the ground and roads, and I don’t think the heater in my Dad’s car reached my sisters and me in the back seat, but we were so excited, as we knew this Sunday afternoon we were getting our tree from the woods. Bundled up for the cold weather, we followed my Dad and Uncle George, and along with a few cousins, we pulled a toboggan that would be used to haul the tree out of the woods back to the house.

We went down a hollow, where the temperature seemed to fall about five degrees, over the railroad track, through a meadow, past the Shea family graveyard and into the woods. Uncle George had already tagged the trees that would be cut for each family, or neighbor, that he was expecting to travel here for a tree. There was a beautiful mix of blue spruce, green spruce and balsam, and the occasional full, fat cedar tree. Ours was usually a blue spruce, or balsam. My Dad and Uncle George had a different shaped handsaw, and once the cutting began, we children frolicked in the snow. They tied the tree firmly to the toboggan and we trekked out of the woods, to Aunt Meta’s hot chocolate and warm cookies. The tree was somehow fit into the trunk of the car, and off we went, tired but singing Christmas songs all the way home with our tree.

In 1984, newly divorced, my sons and I moved from Indiana back to Greenfield, where we lived in a Shea family farmhouse on the south end of Slip Road, on the side of a hill that backed into the Shea woods. That Christmas, although Uncle George had passed, Aunt Meta and my cousin Frank Shea insisted that we cut a tree, just the way we used to do it when I was my son’s ages. Cousin Frank was armed with a chain saw through, and that year there was no snow when we went into the woods for our tree, but the boys were excited and we had fun dragging it out with ropes through the pasture. Aunt Meta, in her late eighties, had hot cocoa made and warm cookies at her home. It was another splendid memory.

Years followed and we moved several times, landing in South Carolina, where some of our traditions changed. In 1996, I landed back in Ashby, MA, and went to a Christmas tree cutting of a very special kind. My sisters and I had grown up with the Pernaa girls, from a Finnish family who lived on the edge of their “certified” tree farm, just south of town. I was working for a local newspaper and old friends told me of this special tree cutting to take place on the first Saturday of December. Evidently, this had been going on for years...the tree that was hauled from their woods would decorate the deck of the USS Constitution in Boston Harbor.

Mrs. Pernaa was now in her nineties (she lived to be 103, I believe), and her husband had passed, but her children and neighbors kept the tradition alive. Two huge horses were hitched to a large wooden sled, waiting anxiously at the edge of the woods for the captain and crew of the Constitution to arrive. They came bringing a large truck with a flatbed trailer, and backed down the narrow road off of the main road. The officers of the Constitution were in full uniform, circa 1800s, with swords at their side and a drummer in the group. The tree, cut earlier for safety, was hauled out, with great ceremony, and somehow loaded and secured on the flatbed for the trip to the ship.

Hot cocoa, cider, and homemade Finnish-style doughnuts were served to all who came to see the spectacle, in Mrs. Pernaa’s garage, by friends and neighbors. It was another memorable Christmas tree experience for me.

My mother passed away in 2012, just one week shy of her 93rd birthday. I was living with her in the house she and my Dad had purchased in 1956, in Fitchburg, MA, just seven miles from Ashby. She was able to stay in the home until about three months before her death. When she died, I had the task, or honor, of going through all her belongings, all the memories of a lifetime she had saved—hers and my grandmothers. She saved EVERYTHING. It took months. There were five of us children, and I sorted out stacks for each one of things that related to them, one stack to throw away...photos and letters and cards, receipts and ledger pages of expenses and payments. She wrote down every penny she spent every day.

But one thing that was a treasure to me was all the Christmas ornaments and cards and letters of the season that she had kept. They were beautiful cards in the style of the 1940s and on, with notes written from my grandparents and others to each of us, or from my Mom and Dad to us, aunts and uncles, family photos sent with the cards. There were the cards we children sent to our parents and grandmother from the first time we could print our names, on through the times we had our own families and lived far away, or seven miles away. And ribbons! Remember the ribbons of the past? She had carefully rolled them up and put them away, to be used another year.

I do not save as compulsively as my mother did, as many of her generation did, but I have saved some of those special cards from my sons and their wives and grandchildren, and from my mother and grandmothers. Photos of Christmas past and letters. I know that each of my children’s families are building their own memories, and I often wonder how they will be kept as memories of their Christmases for their children. In this age of technology, is everything recorded on a digital camera or in a video? Or, will they remain only in their memory, hopefully to share when they are my age. Somehow, in my era, the writing of a card or note at the holidays, from a family member or a friend, was so very intimate, and that seems lost in today’s digital era. When I am around my sons and their families at Thanksgiving and Christmas, I feel somewhat like the main characters in that classic novel “The Giver,” by Lois Lowry. I am The Giver of memory and I so much want them to be “The Receiver,” but I fear that many of my generations’ memories are lost in us.

So, I will fully embrace these new memories created with every Christmas I get to spend with my sons, and silently play back those cherished memories of mine, and their, past Christmases, with a “hot toddy” and create more memories in the beautiful light of the Christmas tree present. I suggest we all do the same. Merry Christmas!

They celebrated. They graduated. They honored heroes.

Through the Liberty Learning Foundation’s Super Citizen Program and live theatrical events, Moon Lake Elementary School students in second and fifth grades were taught character, civics, financial literacy, and career lessons. The active civics program and interactive resources empower educators to teach these crucial lessons in less time, with higher retention, and alongside STEM subjects, to round out the equation for truly outstanding citizens.

On Monday, November 4, at the DeKalb County Coliseum, the second- and fifth-grade students all graduated from the engaging 10-week program (libertylearning.org). One of the lessons was to discuss, to identify, and to vote on a local citizen who represented good character and citizenship in the community. Moon Lake fifth-graders honored DeSoto Rescue Squad to receive the “Torch Team Heroes” for their dedication to keeping our community safe. The second-graders honored MERF: Mentone Educational Resources Foundation as their “Helping Hands Hero” for providing tutoring, arts education, and experiential education for all students. At the ceremony, Nathan Hudgins and Michael Stone spoke about why the fifth grade chose the DeSoto Rescue Squad as a good citizen model for Mentone, and second-grader Stormy Prestwood presented the award to Paula Easter and Sarah Wilcox, representing MERF and the arts program. What great citizens we have in Mentone, from young to old!

Thank you to Alabama Bicentennial, Alabama Department of Education, Altrade Foods, Inc, Alfa, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama, D & F Equipment Sales Inc., DeKalb County Commission, Optimist Club, Regions Bank, Screentech, and United Givers Fund of DeKalb County Inc., for funding and giving this opportunity to these wonderful students!

Congratulations to Moon Lake Elementary School!

For the second year in a row, Moon Lake Elementary School was the only DeKalb County school to receive an A from the Alabama State Department of Education. Congratulations to all! It takes a dedicated staff and community to help each individual child succeed. Porter Wagoner Fudge
—submitted by Harvey Hogue

2 cups sugar
2 heaping Tbsp. cocoa
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 cup maple syrup
1/4 cup milk
2 Tbsp. butter
1 tsp. vanilla
2 Tbsp. peanut butter
1/2 cup English walnuts

Mix sugar, cocoa, salt, and syrup in saucepan. Add enough milk to make it soupy, but very thick. Bring to boil and boil until sugar is dissolved (4–5 minutes). Test by dropping a spoonful into a cup of cold water until it forms a soft ball. Remove from heat and add butter and vanilla. Stir until it begins to cool. Add peanut butter and walnuts. Pour into large platter until it cools and then cut into squares.

Reindeer Sandwich
—Linda Griffin Stephenson

1 slice white to wheat bread, cut in half diagonally
1 Tbsp. spreadable peanut butter (or enough to cover bread)
2 pretzel sticks (for antlers)
1/2 cherry, drained (for nose)
2 raisins (for eyes)

Cut one piece of bread diagonally to make a triangle. Carefully spread peanut butter over entire piece of bread. Place bread on paper plate. With pointed end of bread pointing down, stick pretzel sticks into top (wide part of triangle) of reindeer’s head. Put 1/2 cherry in middle of face for nose, and place the two raisins for eyes.

Poppy Seed Dressing
(Fruit Salad Dressing)
—Betty Jo Dooley, submitted by Linda Griffin Stephenson

2/3 cup pineapple juice 1 Tbsp minced onion
1 cup sugar 1-3/4 cup vegetable oil
2 tsp dry mustard 3 Tbsp. poppy seeds
2 tsp salt

Combine juice, sugar, mustard, salt, and onion in a blender. Blend until smooth. Run blender on high. Add oil slowly, then add poppy seeds. Refrigerate overnight (will keep 3 or more days). Pour over fruit salad.

Chelsea’s Spinach Salad Dressing
—Chelsea L. Stephenson

1/2 cup green onion, chopped small
1/4 cup vinegar
1/4 cup + 1 Tbsp Worcestershire sauce
1/2 cup ketchup
1 tsp salt
1/4 tsp pepper
1/2 cup salad oil

Mix all ingredients well. Pour into a jar and put in refrigerator. Shake well before using. Serve on spinach salad.

Puppy Chow for People
—Linda Griffin Stephenson
“This is fun to make and just a little messy. Good to give at Christmastime in small containers.”

1 bag semisweet chocolate chips
1 cup peanut butter
1 stick butter
1 large box Rice Chex cereal
1 to 2 boxes powdered sugar

Melt chocolate chips, peanut butter, and butter together. Pour this over the Rice Chex in a very, very large bowl and stir until covered. In batches, put mixture in gallon-size plastic bags and pour sugar over. Shake until completely covered. This usually takes more than one box of sugar. Store in a clean gallon bag or an air-tight container. Very tasty!

The holidays are always a busy time and this season seems even more so. The Mentone Arts and Cultural Center (MACC) has moved into high gear as we approach the end of the year.

The MACC Board of Directors recently voted to let bids on initial construction which will focus on the center’s multi-purpose room. This comes on the heels of fundraising efforts that have netted more than $150,000 in donations in the past five months.

Among these charitable gifts was a generous donation from Will Crane and Taylor Crane made in memory of their late mother. The lobby of the center will be named in memory of Gladys Blalock Crane, who was born and raised in Mentone. We greatly appreciate the Cranes’ generosity.

When fully completed, the center will include a performing arts area, classrooms, a culinary kitchen, museum/community safe room, gardens, and an outdoor amphitheater.

We also would like to thank Randy Posey’s Allstate Insurance Agency for their “Helping Hands” grant that will pay for a portion of the bronze casting of the center’s Sequoyah sculpture. The sculpture was created by artists Carl McCleskey and Betsy Scott and honors the inventor of the Cherokee syllabary. Sequoyah lived in nearby Willstown when he completed the syllabary. The couple donated their artistic work on the sculpture. We are very pleased with the sculpture and so thankful to Carl and Betsy for bestowing us with this amazing piece of art.

MACC is currently raising additional funds to pay the costs associated with the finished sculpture. These costs include pre-casting supplies, mold-making, a pedestal and transportation, which all totaled is approximately $15,000. Those who make donations to the casting will be included on a plaque that will accompany the sculpture when placed at the center.

December 3 is Giving Tuesday, and of course, December 31 marks the last day to make a charitable contribution for your 2019 tax deductions. While any time is a good time to give locally, we encourage you to consider giving to MACC this year. We have taken huge steps in the past few months, but we still have work to do to reach the overall fundraising goal that will make the center a reality.

Please remember that you can make a donation “in memory” or “in honor” of a loved one or distinguished citizen. Contributions also can be made anonymously. If you have questions about how to make a donation or would like more information, please contact me.

While this column is a recent update of what’s happening, we offer a heartfelt “thank you” to everyone who has made donations, given their time for events, or offered words of support over the past three years. We ARE getting closer…and it’s because of you.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

It’s Time to Plan Your Escape!

Little River Escape offers 50 acres of mountain climate, riverside hikes, and tiny community living. We have homes sited for sale, models you can sit on the lot of your choice, or you can order a custom tiny home from another tiny home builder!

Relax by the pool, fish in the East Fork of Little River, paddle in one of our kayaks under the bridge to Lake Luray, or hike around to the swimmin’ hole to cool off.

Just over an hour from Atlanta, Chattanooga, and Birmingham, we offer a lovely commute for residents, or an easy getaway for vacationers.

Come see if tiny living fits your big life!
Through the years, I have wondered why people around me would often say, “Time, please stand still.” I am now one of those people, too. It truly seems like only yesterday that my Moon Lake students and I were starting our new school year together...can December actually be here already? Soon we will be welcoming the New Year 2020!

But before we bid 2019 goodbye, I would love to share some of the great things my Fine Arts students have accomplished since my last article.

In October Mrs. Sims’ 2nd-grade students presented a ‘Spook’tacular PTO program and also shared their fun antics with the “JOYS” (Just Older Youth) at the MERF Halloween lunch.

First graders honored our veterans during Moon Lake School’s Veteran’s Day celebration.

I would also like to personally thank Mrs. Sims and her 2nd graders for honoring MERF with the Liberty’s Legacy hero’s award. What an honor to receive such a meaningful award.

Freezing cold weather did not stop our amazing veterans and Moon Lake students from joining together for a wonderful Veteran’s Day celebration on November 12. What a joy to work with Mrs. Lea Long and her kindergarten and 1st graders, and all Moon Lake students. Thank you to veteran Keith Lutz, Staff Sergeant, Marines, for bringing a message for us all—to always be thankful for where we are and all that we have.

With December now upon us, Moon Lake students are busily preparing for our school Christmas musical, “The Christmas Wish.” If you enjoy a story about friendship, fun, and a little bit of “pretend” traveling...this musical is for you! I don’t want to give too much away, but I will tell you that these great Moon Lake students never cease to amaze me with their artistic abilities as well as their musical abilities...which even includes scarf twirling by the kindergarten and 1st grade students! The children and I are incorporating countries we have studied about in art class into our musical, which has made the music that much more fun. There will be two performances of “The Christmas Wish” on Tuesday, December 17, at 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. in the Moon Lake School gymnasium. Two opportunities for you to experience these talented young people!

Along with preparing for our musical, Moon Lake students have once again created original Christmas cards to sell during the holiday season. This is the third year that Moon Lake students have created these one-of-a-kind cards that are always so cheerful and bright. MERF will be at the Merrityme Artisan Market on December 13 and 14 in the Arlene Fowler Youth Center with these cards for sale, and they will also be available at the Moon Lake Library Open House on December 15.

As I close my last article of 2019, I would like to take a moment to thank everyone for all the love and support that you continue to give, and I would also like to wish everyone the happiest of holidays. May all your days be filled with love and laughter.

Thanks to the hard work of dedicated parents, teachers, family members, and volunteers, Moon Lake Elementary School’s Harvest Fest on October 26 was an afternoon marked by fun, fellowship, and fund raising. Despite the cold weather, the event had a great turn-out. Approximately $6,000 was raised for the Moon Lake Parent-Teacher Organization, who appreciates everyone who attended in support of the school.
As I write this monthly update, I am reminded of so many great moments of 2019 and anticipate the new year to be full of exciting opportunities. Little River Waterkeeper spent the year working on issues that matter to you and a community who rely on clean water in Little River for fishing, swimming and boating. Through media and events, our staff educated citizens about water pollution, conservation, and responsible water recreation, to ensure its clean water designation of an Outstanding National Resource Water.

Here are some highlights from 2019:
• Little River Cleanups—100 bags of litter removed from the Little River Canyon National Preserve and over 100 additional bags were collected in other local waterways.
• SwimGuide—176 water samples were taken over 16 weeks in 11 popular swimming holes on Little River. Over 15,000 people visited the Little River Waterkeeper website to view results.
• Guided Eco-Tourism—We shared the best parts of Little River with hundreds of local youth and visitors from around the region.
• DeKalb County Drinking Water Festival—We conducted the 8th annual field trip for over 1,000 4th grade students and their teachers in DeKalb County schools. In order to teach environmental literacy, the event is completely free for schools. Students learn about the water cycle, recycling, and Alabama wildlife and plants through fun, interactive presentations.
• Keep Little River Wild—A campaign in partnership with the Alabama Rivers Alliance to designate Little River in its entirety as a National Wild and Scenic River.
• We were given the opportunity to share our story in the Southern Exposure documentary, “Something About Little River.” The short film recently received an award for the “Best Nature Documentary” at the Georgia Documentary Film Festival. You can watch the film online at vimeo.com/351280262.
• As Little River Waterkeeper moves into 2020, funding is vital to the programs that protect Little River. Each November and December, we solicit funds from donors to cover program expenses throughout the next fiscal year. Our fundraising goal for 2020 is $50,000. While most of these funds will come mostly from grants, we depend on public support just as much. When you become a member or attend our events, you are supporting our work. When you volunteer your time at a river cleanup or help us take water samples, we know you care about the health of Little River. We are committed to keeping Little River pristine and healthy now and for future generations. I hope you will continue to support our efforts in the new year!

Cloudland Park

by Pat Johnson

Cloudland Community Park is very pleased to announce that it has received a grant from the Tillotson-Menlo Charitable Foundation. The money will be used to upgrade the second bathroom at the park and make it handicapped-accessible.

The Tillotson-Menlo Charitable Foundation began in 2005 with a $1,000,000 donation from Tillotson Corporation and over the next five years the Tillotson Corporation contributed an additional $9,000,000 to the Foundation. The amount of grant money is generally determined by the amount of interest accrued each year on the principle amount in the foundation account. Their mission statement is: “The Foundation shall seek to support, promote, improve and maintain the health, educational, and cultural institutions serving the citizens of Menlo and Chattooga County and some surrounding areas.”

Cloudland Park is very pleased to have received this grant and hopes to have the handicapped-accessible bathroom ready by next spring.

The park has a full kitchen, covered pavilion, lots of picnic tables, playground equipment, tennis courts, 1/4-mile walking path, and (in the spring) two bathrooms, one of which will be handicapped-accessible.

Any family or organization that would like to rent the park should inquire in one of the following ways:

Mail to P.O. Box 277, Menlo GA 30731 • Email cloudlandcommunitypark@yahoo.com • Facebook @ CloudlandCommunityPark • Visit cloudlandcommunity.wixsite.com/park.

Governor Ivey Visits DeKalb County

The Little River Canyon Center was host to Alabama Governor Kaye Ivey when she visited DeKalb County as part of the 200th anniversary of Alabama statehood. She has been visiting all the counties in Alabama, and was introduced by local legend and Jacksonville State University board member Randy Owens of the group, ALABAMA. —Betsy Dillbeck
The Little River Arts Council board of directors met on November 13 to wrap up the year’s activities and start planning for the new year.

We would like to thank the homeowners, volunteers, those who donated works of art and other items, and all those who attended our Home Tour and Silent Auction, making it a true success. The two day event brought a steady stream of visitors to see the homes and place their bids, raising close to $5,300 to help support our mission to sponsor events, provide educational opportunities for the community, and strengthen cultural resources for the benefit of businesses and citizens in the Mentone area.

Artists, makers, musicians, and food vendors gathered at the DeSoto State Park picnic area on November 9 and 10 for the fourth annual Creative Spirit Market. This event, a collaboration between the Little River Arts Council and DeSoto State Park, has grown in popularity each year. This year, musical genres ranged from Peruvian flute, jazz, blues, Southern rock favorites, and old time mountain music, as regional and local musicians serenaded the near 1,000 visitors who perused the 30+ artists’ and makers’ booths, watched demonstrations, and purchased favorite pieces from the wide selection of premium hand-crafted goods, fine, and folk art.

Another popular feature of the event was the “Make Art” table, held in the shelter of the pavilion, where adults and children were invited to make their own creations with a variety of furnished art supplies. Willow Flowers, from Willowynn Expressions, led and inspired the artistic creations with the help of Judy Nicole Kirby, who also charmed the make-art audience with her guitar and delightful songs.

This event to benefit artists, musicians and the community was made possible in part through a grant received from the Alabama State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment of the Arts.

Our next event, a collaboration with Moon Lake Baptist Church, is the Merrityme Artisan Market, to be held on Friday, December 13 and Saturday, December 14, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day at the Arlene Fowler Youth Center, 4671 AL Hwy 117, next to the church. All proceeds from vendor fees from this market will be donated to the Moon Lake Elementary School PTO, to benefit the students.

The date is set for our annual meeting in 2020. Join us on March 14 at DeSoto State Park Lodge from 5–7:30 p.m. We will introduce new members of the board, install new officers, accept new memberships and membership renewals, and give updates on anticipated programs for the new year. Details will follow in the February issue of The Groundhog and via e-mail, Facebook and our website, littleriverartscouncil.org.

We are deeply grateful to all those who support the Little River Arts Council through memberships, donations, participation, and attendance at our sponsored events. We look forward to a rewarding new year for the arts in the Mentone area.

Rhea Pirch serves as the treasurer for Little River Arts Council.

Free Ukulele Classes Continue

The ukulele classes for beginners that have been offered by Mickey Luck, Debra Fey, and Jerry Megli have been so popular and well-attended, they will continue into the new year. The focus will be on strumming techniques, learning basic chords, making smooth chord changes, and applying these new skills to well-known songs. Bring your own instrument or a limited supply is available courtesy of Moon Lake Elementary School.

This free class for ALL ages will meet at 1 p.m. at Moon Lake Community Library on Saturdays, November 30, December 14, January 11, and January 25.

Town Elections
Menlo held their town elections on November 5. There was only one open seat for council member and it was won by Cara Cabe. Both the mayor, Theresa Canada, and council member, Chuck Powell, were re-elected. The other council members, Carol Mitchell, Patti Settoon, and John Vanhorn, were not up for re-election. In January, the new city council will be sworn in.

Story Book Walk
The Chattooga County Library has set up a Story Book Walk in Menlo Park. This is their second story book walk this year. It features the book, Red Leaf, Yellow Leaf, by Lois Ehlert. The display boards are set around the park’s walking path, so you and your child can walk and read!

Christmas in the Park
Menlo Park will have a “Christmas in the Park” on Sunday, December 1, beginning at 5 p.m. EST. There will be games for the children and refreshments. All of the Menlo churches will participate in a service in the park with lots of Christmas caroling.

New Town Hall
The new Town Hall, on the corner at the 4-way stop, is almost complete. It will be officially opened in January.

STEPHEN BOYD CAVITT
May 18, 1973 - November 19, 2019
Stephen Boyd Cavitt, 46, of Valley Head, passed away on November 19, 2019. He was a member of Lea’s Chapel Baptist Church. He was a veteran of the United States Navy. His burial was at White Hall Cemetery with military honors. He is survived by his wife, Kris Cavitt; mother, Beverly Windom; children, Madison Tucker, Autumn Corser, Eden Cavitt, and Willow Cavitt; brother, Richard Cavitt; granddaughter, Skyllyn; grandmother, Nina Griffin; brothers, Stacey Windom and Anthony Windom; several aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Windom; grandparents, Champ Windom and Beadie Windom; and grandfather, Raymond Griffin.

EDEDD DELL COOTS, SR.
October 17, 1952 – November 1, 2019
Edie Dell Coots, Sr., age 67, of Cloudland, GA, passed away on November 1, 2019 at Redmond Regional Medical Center. Eddie was a loving father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He was a retired construction worker, although he still dabbled in the trade. His pride and joys were his children, grandchildren and the growing family of great-grandchildren and also his favorite pastime of fishing. He is survived by his wife, Carolyn Bain Coots; children, Eddie (Buster) Coots (Paula), Tiffany Wallace (Stacey Bowman), and Tracy Coots (Manning Spencer); grandchildren, Patrick Coots, Maggie Young, Mason Coots, Abigail White (Dustin), Savannah Wallace, Wyatt Spencer, Morgan Spencer, and Marlie Spencer; great-grandchild, Bo White; sister, Millie Sny (Paul); and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Norman Coots and Margie Baty Coots; brother, Leroy Coots. Shaun Flannigan, Mason Coots, Josh Goss, Patrick Coots, Michael Flannigan, and Johnny Bell served as pallbearers. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations to The Heart House, 501 Redmond Road, Rome, GA 30165. The Family would also like to thank the staff of Redmond Regional ICU East for their tireless efforts and care.

HOLLIS SMITH JR.
December 17, 1952 – November 6, 2019
Hollis Smith Jr., 66, of Valley Head, passed away on November 6, 2019 at Gadsden Regional Medical Center. He is survived by his wife, Piedad Hollis Smith Jr.; children, Eddie Dell, Hollis Smith Jr., and Beadie Windom; and grandfather, Raymond Griffin.

WILLIAM (SQUEAK) GUY SMITH
March 23, 1941 - November 10, 2019
William (Squeak) Guy Smith, 78, of Mentone, passed away Sunday. Squeak was a life-long resident of Mentone, having been born to the late John Paul and Nettie Jane Crow Smith on March 28, 1941. He was loved by all, and loved all, and on any given day, would often come to town so he could see his friends. He loved the outdoors, working on old cars, fishing, and his church, Mentone Church of God of Prophecy.

But most of all, he loved his wife of 54 years, Judy Gail Hasting Smith; children, Nicole and Josh Goldsmith, Crystal and Ray Poteat, Chad and Amber Smith, Whitney and Crystal Smith, Shan Smith and friend Heather Sandusky, and Stacy and Karen Smith. He is survived by 19 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren; his special pet, Sophie, and his brother, John Paul Smith, Jr.

A celebration of Squeak’s life was held with 2 of his sons (who are ministers) doing his eulogy. His burial was at Bankhead Cemetery in Mentone, with his six children serving as pallbearers and his 33 grandchildren and great grandchildren serving as honorary pallbearers.

WHITNEY DANIELLE LABUDA MARTIN
December 8, 1988 – October 30, 2019
Whitney Danielle LaBuda Martin, 30, is survived by her husband, Brandon Lee Martin; daughters, Adelwyn Grace Martin and Whitney Eiris AshLee Martin; mother, Tracy Lynn Freeman; father, John B. When Chris Carmichael and Pat Parmelle bought and moved into the house known as the Ruby O’Rear home, they had a dilemma. What to do with the upright piano inside the home, when they have a baby grand of their own? They happened to meet Barbara Umland, board member of Little River Arts Council, and asked her if the arts council might be interested in taking the piano off their hands. Barbara approached the board and an old idea gained new life.

In 2016, former arts council president Scott Thomas had suggested placing a piano somewhere in Mentone for visitors to casually use as they strolled around town and visited local shops. We all agreed with the idea, and even considered setting one up in the covered area outside of what was then The Crow’s Nest and Lookout Mountain Properties. Since none of the board members knew where to find a piano at little to no cost, the idea faded. Now we were offered the opportunity to procure an upright piano and place it where we thought it might receive the most attention and the greatest opportunity to be used by visitors, as originally intended.

LRAC President Bill Rutledge asked Magnolia, owner of Magnolia Rose & Co., the shop that is now in the former Crow’s Nest space, if she would allow us to place the piano in that covered area on the corner. She agreed, so five men (including four of our board members) moved the piano from the Carmichael/Parmelle home to its new home on the corner of Scenic Highway and AL Highway 117.

Barbara Umland called registered piano technician Wesley Hardman, from Hardman Piano Service, LLC, in Scottsboro, to look at the piano and determine what kind of tuning or repair it might need. Wesley came to Mentone, free of charge, inspected the piano, played with the keys, and fixed the few broken ones he found. He asked if we intended to keep the piano in the outside location for any length of time. (We do, until we can find a publicly-accessible inside home for it.) He advised that we keep it as is, without having it tuned, as it plays well and will serve its purpose as a source of social entertainment just the way it is. He then played us a jazzy tune to prove his point. Barbara and I agreed, along with Magnolia, that it sounds adequate just the way it is.

Wesley then offered us some history on the piano. It was built by Weser Brothers Pianos of New York City in 1916, making it 103 years old. Its mirror, as this type of piano was known to have, is missing but that can easily be replaced. Barbara found a vintage stool at Big Mill Antiques in Fort Payne to complement the piano and make it easier for passers-by to play. And they have been playing it! Magnolia tells us that shoppers seem to enjoy the opportunity the piano brings to play a tune or two, and that many have done so since its installation.

We do plan on moving the piano to a more environmentally secure location (inside), perhaps at the visitor’s center, once it is established, but for now the piano sits in its new home, open for entertainment to all.

Rhea Pirch serves as the treasurer for Little River Arts Council.
