Jimmy Rogers Leaves a Legacy of Loving His Community

The community of Mentone was stunned when word quickly spread on the morning of Sunday, February 2, that Jimmy Rogers, 62, had suffered a fatal heart attack. Jimmy was the chef and proprietor of the Green Leaf Grill, located in the heart of Mentone in an old and charming log cabin that has hosted many restaurants in its years.

The Green Leaf Grill was relatively new, opening in March 2016, but in its time it garnered press from across the nation, as well as several awards. Jimmy spent most of his life perfecting his skills in both cooking and running a restaurant, and his efforts certainly paid off with the success of the Green Leaf Grill.

Jimmy, also called “JR,” was born in Fort Payne and raised in Rainsville, where he graduated from Plainview High School in 1978. After spending time in Texas and Chattanooga, he moved to Perdido Beach, FL, where he owned a restaurant and seafood market. Tiring of the blues and whites of the Gulf Coast landscape, he found himself drawn back to the greens of his native land in 2012. He became the chef at Kamama, where his fine dining blended with art on weekend evenings, when Jimmy set up tables with white linens in the art gallery.

It seems he hit his full stride at the Green Leaf Grill. Aside from the accolades and recognition of the popular restaurant, he was a proud neighbor of the adjacent Log Cabin Village, which he was dedicated to beautifying with additional plantings, including an unusual tree that is native to South Africa that Jimmy was particularly proud of. Last year, he hosted a meeting of concerned citizens to discuss ways to keep Mentone beautiful and free of litter throughout the year. This meeting led to several initiatives being made by attendees, including the “Do Not Litter” signs posted around town by the Mentone Homeschool Group and the adoption of roads as part of Alabama’s Adopt-a-Mile program that ensures stretches of our roadways and highways remain litter-free.

Not only did Jimmy’s heart extend to the beauty of Mentone, but he also had a deep love of animals. He was well-known for his tendency to rescue any dog or cat who crossed his path and looked in need of a home. His animals were so important to him that on the day of death, his employees immediately committed to giving or finding homes for them.

“Jimmy’s best friend for many decades was Mr. Joseph Watkins, 92,” said longtime friend Sandra Padgett. “Joe was a second father to him. Jimmy took care of him the last few years, in spite of Joe’s failing health. He was determined that Joe would not go to a nursing home. Sadly, Jimmy couldn’t keep that promise. Mentone has lost more than a good cook. We lost a good citizen.”

Jimmy also had a soft spot for first responders and veterans, offering them discounts and sometimes free meals. In 2016, he began a tradition of opening the Green Leaf’s doors on Christmas Day for a free meal. In 2017, he hosted a meeting of concerned citizens to discuss ways to keep Mentone beautiful and free of litter throughout the year. This meeting led to several initiatives being made by attendees, including the “Do Not Litter” signs posted around town by the Mentone Homeschool Group and the adoption of roads as part of Alabama’s Adopt-a-Mile program that ensures stretches of our roadways and highways remain litter-free.

Mentone Matters • by Mayor Rob Hammond

Many times our police officers answer a call and upon arrival find a mental health crisis is really the underlying reason for the call. Officers are very limited in their options for getting help. Jail should not be the only option they have. Our state representative and the majority leader, Nathaniel Ledbetter, is working with Governor Kay Ivey to begin addressing mental health issues in Alabama.

Governor Ivey proposed setting aside $31 million dollars in the budget to begin several mental health initiatives. Four bills have been introduced. The first would expand statewide the Stepping Up Program. The goal of this program is to reduce the number of individuals in jails with mental illness. The second bill would provide for a mental health specialist for every school district and eventually provide for a mental health specialist in every school. The third bill would lengthen the time a hospital can detain persons in danger of harming themselves from 24 to 72 hours. The fourth bill would provide for three state mental health crisis units and one mobile crisis unit. We applaud Governor Ivey and Representative Ledbetter’s efforts in addressing the mental health crisis in Alabama, which affects all of us.

Spring is in the air, with bulbs blooming and flowers budding! It’s been a cold, wet winter, and I’m sure we’re all happily looking forward to warmer days and more comfortably spending time outside enjoying the extraordinary beauty that surrounds us.

The students at Moon Lake School beautifully expressed their own feelings about spring on page 17, thanks to the guidance of school librarian Anna Mae Horn, who worked in particular with the 6th graders as they learned to write traditional (and impressive!) cinquains. I’m sure you’ll enjoy them.

Charla Hermann writes from her heart on page 10, describing our special community of service-minded individuals and groups. Next month, look for a listing of all the ways you can become involved...there’s truly something for everyone, based on varying interests.

In February, our area lost many good folks, and each death has left behind the pain of saying goodbye. The circle of life is strong, though, with renewal showing itself everywhere.

One certain way to experience the renewal of spring is with a visit to "the pocket" on Pigeon Mountain in Georgia. The boardwalk on the Shirley Miller Wildflower Trail suffered some storm damage last year but has now been reopened, all the way to the waterfall. If you’ve never been, drop by Moon Lake Library and check out a book on native wildflowers, then visit this magical landscape, which never disappoints.

Have a beautiful spring, everyone! —Kelly
The community is invited to a Cantata that will be performed on Palm Sunday, April 5, at 5 p.m. at Moon Lake Baptist Church and again at 7 p.m. at Valley Head Baptist Church. It is titled “Man of Sorrows, King of Glory,” a musical for Easter, created and arranged by Marty Parks.

The Rhododendron Garden Club met for their monthly meeting at the MERF House on Tuesday, February 11, at 10 a.m. Nine members were present. Sue Schwarz provided tarts and Alabama cornbread along with some coffee for refreshments. For the meditation, Sue read “Caring for Your Garden” by Susie Schwartz.

The business portion of the meeting started after pledging allegiance to the flag. President Marsha Merrell led roll call where we were asked to name our favorite house plants. It turned out that we have a wide variety of favorites, including begonias, ferns, orchids, philodendrons, sansevieria (also known as the snake plant), and schefflera (dwarf umbrella tree). Member Sue Schwarz has a Christmas cactus handed down from her great grandma which still blooms. That impressed us all!

Marsha Merrell filled in the Conservation report for Jan Wilkinson. She reported on a movement being made by the National Wildlife Federation (NWF) to create butterfly habitats on state highways and freeways to benefit the pollinators and save mowing costs for the state. An email from the NWF, shared by Mellanie Tuttle, states that “Roadsides can support a surprising variety of pollinators, bees and butterflies” and that “Research has found that butterflies are less likely to cross a road where there is a good roadside habitat” saving butterflies from being hit by cars by crossing the road. Roadside habitats would also benefit long-distance migratory birds like the ruby-throated hummingbird. The email included a link to send a message to the road. ‘Roadside habitats would also benefit long-distance migratory birds like the ruby-throated hummingbird.’ The email included a link to send a message to the road. For the Horticulture report, Martha Wood brought in some budding quince and gave us tips on how to force spring flowering trees and shrubs to bloom inside. She said to look for swollen, plump flower buds (not just leaf buds) on the branch before you cut them (on an angle) and bring them inside to immerse in a pitcher of water and watch them bloom in a week to six weeks. She gave us a list of trees and shrubs we can force. Besides quince, there is also apple, maple, dogwood, forsythia, hawthorne, honeysuckle, lilacs, plums, cherry, pussy willow, red buds, magnolia, spirea, viburnum, and witch hazel.

Mark your calendars for the upcoming plant sales! The first one, sponsored by the Master Gardeners of DeKalb County, will be held at the DeKalb County Fairgrounds on Saturday, April 18. The Federation of Garden Clubs will hold their annual plant sale on Saturday, May 2, at the Henegar Community Park, starting at 9 a.m. An abundance of different plants and flowers will be available for purchase, but they go fast, so get there early if you plan to go.

For the monthly program, we kicked in our creative side and made Valentine-inspired wreaths to use as table decorations for the MERF Senior Lunch, which we hosted on February 12. Before starting on the wreaths, Marsha Merrell gave us some history on them, which she gathered online from a Wikipedia article.

“Wreath” is a word derived from an Old English word meaning to twist, as in a circle. In the ancient Greco-Roman world, wreaths were made from gold or other precious metals and worn as an adornment, most often to represent a person’s occupation, rank, achievement and status. The custom of using harvest wreaths as household decorations can be traced back to ancient Europe and is associated with animistic spiritual beliefs.

In Christianity, wreaths are most often used to observe the Advent season. The Advent wreath was first made from a cartwheel and used by Lutherans in the 16th century to educate children about the meaning and purpose of Christmas, as well as to help them count its approach by adding white candles for each Sunday before Christmas. Since then, in many denominations, one candle is added to the center, the Christ candle, and is lit on Christmas day.

Wreaths have also been used at funerals since the time of ancient Greece to represent a circle of eternal life. In the Victorian era, flowers started to take on their own symbolism and were added to funeral wreaths to express certain sentiments.

Wreaths are made and used today for a wide variety of occasions (such as Valentine’s Day) and can be easily made from an array of materials. The wreath we made went home with the Seniors to add a little love and beauty to their surroundings.

Our next meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 11, starting at 10 a.m. at the MERF House. Member and Horticulture Chairperson Martha Wood will present a program on Spring Bulbs for Fall Blooms. We hope to see you there!

community potluck because he never wanted anyone to feel lonely. If someone wanted to attend but lacked transportation, Jimmy would arrange a ride for them. This holiday potluck became a favorite annual event for many locals who didn’t have family nearby and could enjoy the day with their neighbors and friends, old and new.

Jimmy was especially proud of being honored in 2018 by the Alabama Catfish Producers, who, after a state-wide search, named his catfish as the best in the state.

He was also proud of his dedicated employees, who were devastated by his passing. The Green Leaf staff consider themselves family and have been relying on each other for support in their grief.

Jimmy is survived by his loving sister, Sharon Rogers Gibson, of Rainsville. Assistant Manager Misty Ogle said that whenever Jimmy knew Sharon was coming to the restaurant, he would always tell his staff, “Now sister gets whatever she wants, and make it extra special for her!”

He was preceded in death by his parents, Lelon and Betty Sue Rogers.

Known for greeting most everyone with a hearty, “Hello, friend,” Jimmy will be missed by Mentone, not only for his friendliness and community commitment, but for his award-winning food, as well.

Goodbye, friend.

The community is invited to celebrate the life of Jimmy Rogers on Sunday, March 1, from 1–3 p.m. at the Mentone Inn Pavilion.

Bring a potluck dish & beverage. Jerry and Pixie Bloom will perform music and stories about Jimmy will be shared.

The Mentone Arts & Cultural Center is hosting visiting wildlife artist/instructor Alan R. Young for a weekend arts class March 20–22. Young has been an instructor at the prestigious John C. Campbell Folk School for the past 20 years and is an award-winning artist.

The class, “Watercolor in Drybrush: Wildlife, Pets, and Nature’s Elements,” runs Friday, March 20, 6–8 p.m.; Saturday, March 21, 9 a.m.–12 p.m. (lunch on your own) and 1:30–5 p.m.; and Sunday, March 22, 9:30 a.m.–12 p.m. at the Town of Mentone’s Community Building (formerly Kamama) located at 5951 AL Highway 117. The class is limited to the first 10 paid students. (At press time, the class had seven confirmed students.) Please email mentoneartscenter@gmail.com or call 256-674-3366 if interested.

Class Details
Drybrush, by definition, means “not much water.” It is a controlled approach and an alternative to traditional watercolor. It can be used as a supplement or stand-alone medium. Drybrush also is paper dependent. By using hard, compact cold press paper, the artist can lift paint to create highlights, light channels, and other peak areas. It is “painting by subtraction.”

Additional subtracting and/or adding paint by layer and any other reworking can only be performed after the previous layer is completely dry. This is to maintain the integrity of the paper in use. Masking fluids are also used periodically to maintain negative areas. Basic drawing fundamentals are also covered in this class. Students are encouraged to bring their own hardcopy reference photos, such as pets and animals. Critiques and consultations are always cost-free for any previous student.

About the artist/instructor
Wildlife Artist Alan R. Young is well established throughout the South for his “Birds of the Appalachian” paintings. His technique, watercolor in drybrush, differs from traditional watercolor, allowing for increased detail and contrast. Many who view his paintings for the first time often mistake the work for photography.

Among his many followers and collectors, his “split study” portraits of both the Great Horned Owl and Barred Owl (circa 2018) continue to receive tremendous accolades. In total, Alan Young has more than 50 awards in Fine Arts in various competitions. His work also resides in corporate collections, including Coca-Cola, Georgia Power and TBS. He remains the only artist to be featured at Calloway Gardens Festival in Lights for three consecutive years.

Last year marked his 20th anniversary teaching “Pen and Ink Drawing” classes at the John C. Campbell Folk School in Brasstown, North Carolina. Randy Grider is executive director of the Mentone Arts & Cultural Center and can be reached by phone at 256-674-3366 or by email at mentoneartscenter@gmail.com.

On Saturday, March 21, Menlo will hold its annual Quilt Show at the Lawrence Center in Menlo. The show will be between 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. EDT. Admission is $3. There will be quilting demonstrations, refreshments, prizes with vintage quilt displays, and a country store. For those wanting to enter their quilt(s) in the show, you must bring your entries to the Lawrence Center on Friday, March 20, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. EDT. You will need to leave your quilt(s) and fill out a registration form for each quilt. The categories are: hand quilted; machine quilted; and “other items” which includes crochet, embroidery, needlepoint, etc. Ribbons will be awarded for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places. There will also be a ribbon for “Viewers’ Choice Award.”

The Menlo Housing Authority Resident Association is also selling raffle tickets for $1 for a chance to win a beautiful quilt made by friends of the Association. The quilt measures 82x102 inches and the pattern is called Storm at Sea. The pattern depicts the rolling water of a stormy sea with its simple color and wave-like imagery. It is believed to be based on biblical scripture. Tickets can be purchased at the Housing Authority office, Menlo Town Hall, Menlo Restaurant, Chattooga County Commissioner’s Office in Summerville, Willow Tree Restaurant in Summerville, and from volunteers helping with the sale. The drawing for the quilt will be held at the Spring Quilt Show on March 21.

The quilt show and the raffle are sponsored by the Menlo Housing Authority Resident Association, along with Reading Buddies volunteers. All proceeds go to fund Menlo’s Veteran Marker Project and the Reading Buddies Program. The goal is to make a difference and a positive impact on the Menlo Community. For additional information, call the Housing Authority at 706-862-2240.

Save the Date! Valley Head’s “Memories of Mayberry” festival will be held on Saturday, May 2. Traditionally, this annual festival has been held the first weekend of June, but will now be held on the first weekend of May, in part to avoid the warmer temperatures. Look for more details in the April issue of The Groundhog.

Lookout Restaurant at Cloudland

The Lookout Restaurant in Cloudland has closed. The owners, Chuck and Cindy Lopopolo, were only leasing the building. The owner of the building, Mr. Lawson Dempsey, wants to sell it and has listed it with Rick Watt Realty in Summerville. Chuck and Cindy were both very sick during December and had to suspend service for several weeks. They are both in good health now, but are not in a position to buy the restaurant. They will still cater until the restaurant sells and they hope whoever buys it will reopen it. Chuck wanted to convey his sincere thanks and gratitude to all the customers who frequented the Lookout while he was there.

Happy Day!
March 2020

MERF News by Sarah Wilcox

My boards may be a little creaky and my paint a little flaky but I am full of life. I continue to open my doors to the young and the wise so my walls are full of joy, laughter and learning.

March mantra is the magic of Mentone and the magic of MERF! As we prepare for MERF’s 8th annual Taste of the Mountain and Art Auction, MERF celebrates the magic of the Mentone community. On Saturday, April 4, the Magic of MERF will be the theme of MERF’s fundraiser. Magic of community will be seen in the transformation of the Moon Lake Elementary School gym performed by the fun and talented decorating committee. (Volunteers for set up and clean up are still needed). Magic and talent will be seen in the artistic works from local artists and the Moon Lake students and in the culinary artistry of the local chefs. For sponsorship opportunities or artwork donations, contact Dorma Hutcherson at dormahutcherson@gmail.com by March 6. Once again, Paula Easter and the students from Moon Lake had a fabulous family art night on February 25. The artwork for the auction was chosen before the event and is always difficult for the judges. The student artists didn’t disappoint, once again. The students have wonderful work in the style of artists such as Heather Galler, Claude Monet, Yayoi Kusama and Henri Matisse. Can’t wait to post these masterpieces on Facebook! Loved the bell performance too! What fun, pride, and intensity in this performance by the students.

Magic also happens in many kitchens on the mountain for the auction, as creative chefs abound in our area! Can’t wait to enjoy the different Tastes of the Mountain in April. For food vendor opportunities, contact Anna Mae Horn at mrsannahorn@gmail.com or 256-635-8908 by March 6. Ticket sales will begin on March 2. A single ticket is $35 and a table of 8 is $250. Space is limited, so tickets must be purchased in advance from Sarah Wilcox or from the Mentone Market (cash or check only). If you are unable to attend, don’t fret—watch MERF’s Facebook page @ merfhouse for a possible online auction opportunity!

March magic and serious tail wagging is also happening on Tuesday, March 10, as the entire Moon Lake Elementary School heads to the Alliance Theatre in Atlanta to see Mo Willem’s book “Naked Mole Rat Gets Dressed” transformed into a rock musical! As described by the Alliance theater, “With tail-shaking tunes, empowering messages of individuality and Mo Willems humor, this family-friendly musical is sure to rock audiences of all ages.” The students are familiar with Mo Willems, as they know many of his award-winning children’s books and characters such as “Don’t Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus” and “Knuffle Bunny.” If you have never met these inspiring characters, check out the books at our great community library. Funding for this magical adventure is thanks to our wonderful MERF financial donors and this exposure to the arts experience has been made possible by grants from the Alabama State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts.

MERF magic also happens weekly at the MERF house with our Tuesday afternoon tutoring, Wednesday lunches, and Thursday spring lunches will be provided by the Rhododendron Garden Club, Camp DeSoto with the Farm at Windy Hill, Mentone Market, Skyline Camp, Alpine Camp for Boys, Chick-Fil-A, Mentone Community Church, Camp Laney, St. Joseph’s Episcopal Church, Moon Lake Baptist Church, Wildflower Café, and Boy Scout Troop 106. And our MERF moms and kiddos meet weekly on Thursday mornings at 10:30 a.m. with a monthly art/music class.

MERF magic happens with a vision and a supportive board. The MERF board is grateful for Kristen Emory serving as President for the past five years and accepted her resignation as president board member at the January board meeting. The future of MERF is in good hands with President Dr. Bill Berry, Vice President Vicky Patrick, Secretary Kathy McMunn, Treasurer Marsha Merrell, Carol Hazell, Roland Hendon, Kayla Worthey, and Walt Pullen.

Loving and serving the community also has heartaches. February meant saying goodbye to two MERF lunch friends and great country cooks, Dessie Brown and Jimmy Rogers. We are thankful for their friendship and their generosity. Here’s a great picture of them at a Wednesday lunch when Jimmy was hoping to get the secret to Dessie’s buttermilk pie. Rest in peace, MERF friends.

Sarah Wilcox is Executive Director of MERF, a local non-profit organization whose mission it “to enrich the learning and living of the community by identifying needs and coordinating resources.” If you would like to support our programs, tax-deductible donations can be mailed to P.O. Box 107, Mentone, AL 35984, or you may contribute online at merfhouse.org. Contact Sarah at merf.mentone@gmail.com or 256-635-8193 for more information.

The Circle of Service That Holds Us
by Charla Hermann

It never fails to happen, when we gather for events on Lookout Mountain: As we greet guests from around the country, we are also greeting our future neighbors. Each festival brings in the latest couple who just moved here to retire or find a new beginning. There is something magic about this area and it tends to call in some of the most generous and kind humans I have ever met. This best-kept secret and bubble of history and humanity is a rich blessing that blends together a community of people from all places and walks of life. There seems to be one thing everyone has in common and that is the urge to reach out and serve and support the community around them.

There is a rich history of service in this area that many do not know about—a community of heart that manages to maintain all form of support services out of our local pocket. A group of 20 people recently met at Moon Lake Community Library to discuss the ways we can better coordinate our outreach efforts and become even more effective. It was a wonderful group of folks who showed up to share what they offer to keep this wonderful place alive and thriving. Countless local volunteers offer a rich generosity as they work to maintain and expand the growth and services that are so needed for us all to enjoy our country living.

We are of course, blessed with an amazing rescue squad—men and women who provide emergency medical services. Our volunteer firefighters are dedicated to being on call, whenever we need them, whether it’s to fight a fire, remove a tree from a roadway, or teach our children about fire safety. Ryleigh’s Closet at Mentone Community Church provides clothing for the entire family, free of charge, twice each month, and a local group of women hold quarterly clothing exchanges. The Food Bank at St. Joseph’s makes sure no one goes hungry and the group of Methodist Women creates all form of support for our youth. MERF’s list of services is ever-growing, ranging from hosting weekly senior lunches to tutoring our local youth.

We are a really special community. Our art community brings a variety of cultural programs to the area, and our newspaper helps spread the word. We are able to enjoy music, art, and family entertainment throughout the year. Our connecting projects have developed wonderful things, like the tile mosaic on the step risers at DeSoto Falls, made by the hands of over a thousand of our neighbors and friends. We can see this form of connection in every corner. Without even knowing it, folks move here to be blessed with a surprising abundance of ways to make a community of heart and soul. Small bands of folks manage our library and smaller outreach services. For more than 15 years, they have made sure that Valley Head High School graduates have been given laptop computers. Backpacks of school supplies or weekend lunches are freely offered. This community feeds and cares for its youth like no other. It is small and mighty in its ability to see a problem and provide a solution.

We have river guardians, and a garden club to enrich the local flora and fauna. Countless volunteers work the roadsides to clean up and make this place special for the tourists who help us pay our bills during the high season. We have hidden secrets like a ski resort and numerous camps for children who come here from all over the world. Out of those visitors come our future neighbors. We hope they feel welcome to come and reach into the circles of service and become part of this wonderful home we have all co-created and maintain. Oddly, we don’t always even know each other in our day-to-day. Yet when it comes time to gather, serve and support our seniors with food and fellowship, or serve our children, there is someone around every corner.

There is a gratitude that happens when helping hands come together. That gratitude grows with each new hand that joins the circle. Together, we have found endless opportunities to help Lookout Mountain to continue to be the home of many nations who form one heart. The ancestors who lived in these hills left behind a legacy that seems to be alive and well in these times. We as a community are in a place of growth and endless opportunity to maintain our nature and our little corner of magic that brings an ancient song of wholeness to this place that has a rich history of community and soul.

SenioRx & Medicare Part D

submitted by Lynn Hixon

There are times when Medicare Part C or D can work with SenioRx to help you get your needed medications. If you are in the Gap or “Doughnut Hole,” there could be options available to assist you in getting those medications free or at a low-cost through the SenioRx program. Most of the time, the medications must be the more expensive brand-name drugs. SenioRx is a prescription drug assistance program that helps eligible clients receive free or low-cost prescription drugs from the drug companies. This is for people age 55 and older AND people with disabilities of any age who have a chronic medical condition and need brand-name medicines. This program is brought to you by the Alabama Department of Senior Services and the 13 Area Agencies on Aging, serving as Aging and Disability Resource Centers for Alabama. There are income requirements. Certain Medicare Part D insurances are accepted. To see if you qualify, call DiAnne Callahan or Lynn Hixon at the DeKalb County Council on Aging at 256-845-8590.
Nine years ago, in March 2011, I met a waterkeeper, John Wathan, the Hurricane Creekkeeper of the Black Warrior River Basin. It was at the Alabama Water Rally at Camp McDowell. John was presenting his coverage of the Gulf Horizon Oil Disaster in 2010 that, over a span of five months, leaked 210 million gallons of oil into our emerald Gulf. The accidental environmentalist finished with an inspiring question. “Who has the authority to say someone else is not being a good steward of the environment? Anyone who notices.” The following year, we joined the Waterkeeper Alliance, which is made up of 300 groups worldwide and we joined nine other local Waterkeeper organizations in the fight to preserve and protect citizens’ rights to clean water in Alabama. Since then, we have committed ourselves personally and professionally to protect the integrity of Little River and its tributaries. In order to do this, we set goals for the organization to achieve desired outcomes. Our most important goal is education. When the community is informed on the issues that threaten our watershed, we hope that can prevent negative impacts and encourage smart practices. To make it easier, we will soon launch an interactive map of Little River on our website that will highlight the river’s outstanding remarkable values.

While winter months are usually busy with grant writing, preparing budgets, and planning events, this winter has been a particularly wet season, which had us patrolling the watershed more than usual for this time of year. In January and February, we responded to several citizen complaints about excessive sediment pollution in several areas on the river due to land disturbances from bad roads, land development, and logging cuts. This type of non-point discharge is detrimental to the health of the river and is not permitted on Outstanding National Resource Waters (ONRW), a title claimed by Little River. Section 131.12(a)(3) of the EPA's antidegradation policy says, "States may allow some limited activities which result in temporary and short-term changes in water quality," but such changes in water quality should not impact existing uses or alter the essential character or special use that makes the water an ONRW. A good example of short-term changes is the bridge replacement over Highway 117 in Mentone. ALDOT had to disturb the land in order to construct the bridge, however their environmental management plan states they are required to replant the streambank to restore the river’s natural habitat to protect the long-term health of the river. We strongly encourage private landowners along the river corridor and along streams leading to Little River, to keep their riverbank intact with native shrubs to prevent long-term degradation. Impacts of sedimentation in the river decrease plant productivity, negatively impacting fish and bird species and causing abrasion to fish gills, thus increasing potential for disease. Turbidity (muddy water) can also cause visual impairment for predatory fish, affecting their feeding habits. Aquatic macroinvertebrates (dragonflies, caddisflies, snails, mussels) that provide important ecological services in our shallow riverbed, such as filtration, are threatened by sediment pollution. Antidegradation is not a “no growth” rule and was never designed or intended to be; these regulations are designed to maintain and protect high quality waters. As we move into the future, growth in the watershed is inevitable. As we make choices for the future, let’s keep in mind the generations that will enjoy Little River after we are gone and leave Little River better than we discovered it.

Remembering the Mentone Springs Hotel

March 1 marks six years since Mentone lost one of its icons, when the Mentone Springs Hotel burned to the ground. The "Grand Old Lady" is still missed by many, including owner Darlene Rotch’s 13-year-old granddaughter, Elle, who wrote the following poem in response to a school assignment in which she was asked to use poetry to describe a photo using her five senses.

"Elle was just 7 when it burned and had been coming there to visit since she was 3," said Darlene. "It’s such an accurate description of how it made a lot of us feel."

I see the old white paint chipping off the sides of the building
I hear people chatter as they enjoy their lunch on the porch
I smell the sweet smell of the freshly cut grass
I feel the wind as it blows against my face
I taste the freshness of the air as I breath in
I think this is the happiest place on earth

Strum and Be Happy!
by Debra Fey

Last fall, Jerry Megli and I were considering committing to a bi-monthly drive to Arab to play ukulele with others when it occurred to us that we could avoid the drive if there were people in the Mentone area who wanted to play together. Artist and musician Mickey Luck agreed to join us in leading free ukulele classes for beginners. Since November, an average of 15–20 people have participated in each of the sessions, which are held on the second and fourth Saturdays at 1 p.m. at Moon Lake Community Library (March 14 and 28).

Our ongoing ukulele group was created initially to see if there were people locally with a shared interest in the ukulele. Lo and behold, we found out that there is! So our ukulele group is firmly established and here to stay.

The ukulele is a fun and easy instrument to learn, they are reasonably priced, the nylon strings are easy on the fingers, and the four strings make most chords quite easy to learn and play. In literally one session folks can be playing tunes.

Over the last five months, a friendly bunch of folks have regularly attended our ongoing sessions and learned many chords and strumming techniques. Sheet music has been handed out for lots of songs from a wide range of genres. At every session, folks leave with three or four new songs to practice.

But at just about every session, we also have new folks attend who are completely new to the instrument. We make it easy for beginners to join in the fun! Newcomers are finding that they can easily and quickly get on board and catch up with the folks who attend regularly. We have limited loaner instruments available courtesy of Moon Lake Elementary School, and have created a Beginners Ukulele Packet for all newcomers, who are offered a session with the instructors to get up to speed on the ins and outs of the ukulele and how to strum a few simple chords.

You can now find us on Facebook! "Mentone Ukes" was created to share stories and songs, and to encourage one another in between sessions. Feel free to contact Debra Fey on Facebook, email debrajfey@gmail.com or text/call 404-630-2918 if you have any questions or would like to be added to our ukulele contact list.

Introducing Whisper Wednesday
Wednesday 3/4, 4–6 pm

Our library is truly a community center, in so many ways. It’s not a “quiet” library, since folks are often talking together, catching up on their lives and meeting new friends. Sometimes, though, it is nice to have that traditional quiet library experience, when you can browse the shelves, or sit in a comfortable chair and read, or use free wi-fi on your own device or one of the library’s laptops that are free to use by patrons.

The first Wednesday of each month will be “Whisper Wednesday,” when the library will be open from 4 until 6 p.m., and only whispering will be allowed. We will also be open on some additional Wednesdays, pop-up style, when we’ll announce in emails and on Facebook that we’ll be open. Be sure to keep informed about what’s happening at the library by liking our Facebook page or joining our email list at bit.ly/moonlakelibraryemail.

Moon Lake Book Club
Saturday 3/14 @ 10:30 am

In Dispatches from Pluto, adventure writer Richard Grant takes on “the most American place on Earth”—the enigmatic, beautiful, often derided Mississippi Delta.

Richard Grant and his girlfriend were living in a shoebox apartment in New York City when they decided on a whim to buy an old plantation house in the Mississippi Delta. Dispatches from Pluto is their story of discovery into this strange and wonderful American place. Imagine A Year In Provence with alligators and assassins, or Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil with hunting scenes and swamp-to-table dining.

On a remote, isolated strip of land, three miles beyond the tiny community of Pluto, Richard and his girlfriend, Mariah, embark on a new life. They learn to hunt, grow their own food, and fend off alligators, snakes, and varmints galore. They befriended an array of unforgettable local characters—blue-blooded T-Model Ford, cookbook maven Martha Foose, catfish farmers, eccentric millionaires, and the actor Morgan Freeman. Grant brings an adept, empathetic eye to the fascinating people he meets, capturing the rich, extraordinary culture of the Delta, while tracking its utterly bizarre and criminal extremes. Reporting from all angles as he pursued these vanishing remnants, the next year, I devised a comprehensive plan to map the entire state. I broke it up into 16 manageable sections and began going through those sections one by one. Every time I would find something I thought worthy, I would mark it on the map. What was initially a handful of locations grew to about 3000.

Eventually, I managed to make it to all 67 counties, logged over 50,000 miles, and took about 40,000 photographs. My first book, Forgotten Alabama, came out in early 2016. While waiting for its release, I gathered enough material for my second book, More Forgotten Alabama, which was released in December 2016. I envisioned a third book, and I wanted it to be the one that defined my journey. It took nearly three more years to create 200 Years of Forgotten Alabama. This edition is truly the one I always wanted to do. The vast majority of the book is new discoveries. I also revisited a few old favorites with new perspectives and included many of the things we lost. Many times, I wondered if I was the last person to document something while it still existed. I will say it was always a melancholy moment to discover something that was now gone. I am grateful to have had the opportunities to capture these lasting memories.

Join us for a multi-media presentation by author Glenn Wills on Monday, March 16, at 6:30 p.m. Light refreshments will be served. You can learn more about Glenn and his work at forgottenalabama.com or on his popular Facebook group at facebook.com/groups/forgottenalabama1819.

Community Game Nights
Fridays 3/13 & 27 @ 6 pm

Enjoy playing a variety of games with your neighbors and friends (old and new) at Moon Lake Community Library. Bring your favorite game or come learn how to play a new one. Bring a finger food to share in the pot luck. Coffee, tea, and water will be provided. All ages are welcome.

Fireman of the Year

by Ken Trowbridge and Vicky Patrick

Gary Smith, one of the North Lookout Mountain Fire Protection District’s (Mentone) firemen, was elected “Fireman of the Year” at the Department’s Christmas party. He and his lovely wife, Mary, moved to Mentone in 2013 upon his retirement. He joined the Fire Department in 2016 and has been a great addition to the Department. Besides his regular duties as a fireman, Gary has taken it upon himself to maintain the vehicles and Stations 1 and 2. Gary has done exceptional work in getting fire station #2 on CR 165 better organized and ensuring the vehicles are ready for the next call. Congratulations to Gary for a job well done!

Blessing of the Sacred Garden

by Mike Keracher

The community is invited by St. Joseph’s on-the-Mountain Episcopal Church to a short ceremony which will include a blessing for the church’s sacred garden from Bishop Kee Sloan (the bishop of the Alabama Diocese) and the dedication of the garden to the entire community of Mentone. This ceremony will begin at 12:30 p.m. on Sunday, March 8, in the garden on Scenic Highway adjacent to the church.

Everyone is invited to take a walk through the garden after the ceremony to enjoy the peace and beauty of this wonderful new landmark in Mentone, which features a walking trail, seating, and a labyrinth.

The Little River Arts Council (LRAC) board of directors met for their monthly meeting on Wednesday, February 12, at the Mentone Inn. We reviewed the plans for our annual meeting, which will be held on Saturday, March 14, at the DeSoto State Park Lodge. The event will include hors d’oeuvres, a cash bar, artist demonstrations, and the Native American flute music of musician Linda Arthur. The get-together is from 5 to 7:30 p.m. and is open to the public.

Two board members have announced their resignation from our board of directors. Holley Midgley and Jerry Megli have decided to leave the board for personal reasons. Folk artist Lacy Hope Dobbs and photographer/writer Steven Stiefel have been chosen to fill these positions, pending a membership vote at the annual meeting.

We’re all looking forward to welcoming the Fellowship Company of the Alabama Shakespeare Festival for their private performance of “A Midsummer’s Night Dream” at Moon Lake School on Thursday, February 27. This performance is made possible in part through a grant from the Alabama State Council on the Arts. This year, Jessica Harper-Brown, LRAC board member and executive director of Landmarks of DeKalb County, was able to schedule two additional performances of the play at the Fort Payne Opera House. The first performance, on Friday, February 28, will be for the students of DeKalb County schools, and the second performance, open to the public, is scheduled for Saturday, February 29. Tickets for Saturday’s performance, which begins at 2 p.m., are $10. Email landmarksdekalb@bellsouth.net or call 256-845-6888 to purchase tickets.

The Mentone Area Preservation Association (MAPA) has granted Little River Arts Council the funds to provide a free concert for the community on Friday, May 15, to kick off that weekend’s Rhododendron Festival. Local favorite Will Dooley and Friends will again entertain with old favorites and new songs from their upcoming album, which will be released at the concert. Be sure to mark your calendar!

Plans are in motion to start work on the “Pathway to Community,” a collaborative project with the Mentone Educational Resources Foundation (MERF) and Little River Arts Council. This community-wide effort will enhance the walking trail adjacent to the MERF House with musical instruments, art, landscaping, lighting, and seating, thanks to a $20,000 grant provided by the Community Foundation for Northeast Alabama. If you would like more information or to volunteer to help, email pathwaytocommunity@gmail.com.

We hope to see you all at our membership social on Saturday, March 14!

Rhea Pirch serves as the treasurer for Little River Arts Council.

Nestled in the woods atop Lookout Mountain, near Mentone, Alabama, this quaint little chapel is surrounded by ferns, forest and flowers. The chapel is a scaled version of traditional Appalachian churches of days gone by. Stained glass windows filtering soft forest sunrays and soft organ music accent an audience fitting the wedding ceremony. Inside, wooden pews will seat approximately 60 guests.

Linda Patterson, owner of the chapel, said the idea for it began with a bell, and now that bell rings as newlyweds exit the door of the chapel.

Valley Head Drugs
March is upon us, and it soon will be time to celebrate St. Patrick’s Day. But in Mentone we don’t just wear green—we join together to eat and help those in need. Everyone in the community is invited to St. Joseph’s-on-the-Mountain for the annual St. Patrick’s Day Dinner on Sunday, March 15, from 12 to 2 p.m. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children age 12 and under and are available at the Mentone Market and the St. Joseph’s office.

The menu includes corned beef, cabbage, potatoes, carrots, bread, drink, and dessert.

Prepared by the Episcopal Church Women (ECW), the traditional Irish meal benefits the Food Bank Outreach Ministry at St. Joseph’s, which serves approximately 50 families per week. Come, bring your loved ones and know you’re helping prevent others from going hungry.

If you’re lucky enough to eat this meal, you’re lucky enough!

For information about the dinner or ECW’s programs, call the church office at 256-634-4476.

In 2019, Little River Escape Tiny Home Community was named one of the nation’s top 6 tiny home communities by U.S. News & World Report. As a result, our community is now almost fully occupied by folks who have come from 12 different states. RRE is now delivering across the nation, as well as developing other communities to bring more folks to Lookout Mountain.

A new development is coming to Mentone, only 3 miles from town. Mentone Mountain Escape will be a tiny home neighborhood with +/-20, ½-acre wooded lots per house and a common area with a dog park, patio, and firepit area.

Correction
In our February issue, Charles Hammonds’ birthday was incorrectly listed. His correct birthday is October 10, 1927. We apologize for the mistake, which was pointed out by Mr. Hammonds’ daughter, Pam: “If he had been born in 1940, he wouldn’t have been 92 years old (haha). However, about 60 is how old he acted and felt! He was in excellent health for his age. Dad loved the MERF meeting and lunches!”
